

About Us

At JKT Farming, we're more than a garden store—we're partners in your gardening journey. We believe in the magic of growing, where plants help us discover our true selves. From your first sprouted seed to your first bloom, we're here to share in the joy of every new leaf.

Community Engagement

Join our community of plant lovers. We organize events, meet-ups, and plant swaps where you can connect with like-minded individuals who share your passion.
